

Oread

by H. D.

QUESTIONS

Name:	Class:
1. "Oread" is an extremely short poem with no significant rhyme scheme sound devices in the poem. How do the repetition of words, alliteration and hurl ) contribute to the overall tone of the poem?
2. The resemblance of the sea to a pine forest might be hard to imagine, y in very few lines. How does she achieve this? What makes the speaker's
3. "Oread" is a prime example of imagism, a style of poetry characterized precise images. What message does the poem convey, and how does H	