

Irony:

a conflict or contrast between reality and expectations. Irony creates laughter, drama, or tension.

The ghost was startled by the child's simple bedsheet costume.