Objectives

By the end of this Unit, the student will be able to:

1. infer information about characters and events when the information is not explicitly stated.
2. discuss Morrison's writing style, which is characterized by numerous descriptive phrases and images.
3. define the listed vocabulary terms from the story.
4. define and cite examples from Beloved of the following literary terms:
  - irony
  - folklore
  - symbolism
  - simile
  - personification
  - theme
  - metaphor
5. discuss the significance of names and nicknames in Beloved, both of people and places.
6. recognize and discuss the lasting mental effects of slavery on former slaves and their ancestors, as revealed in Beloved.
7. identify and compare the two different time-frames in which Beloved occurs.
8. explain the term "objective correlative," and how it applies to Beloved.
9. discuss the differences in the communication that takes place between black people and between blacks and whites in Beloved.
10. discuss the notion of the individual's obligation to the community, as displayed by Stamp Paid, Baby Suggs, and Ella.
11. discuss the progression of matriarchs through three generations of the Suggs family, from Baby Suggs to Denver.
12. identify examples and justifications for retribution in Beloved, and how each applies to the characters in the novel.
13. discuss the difference between religion and spirituality, as exemplified by Baby Suggs.

Questions for Essay and Discussion

1. Comment on the significance of the pictures denoting the three sections of the novel.
2. Discuss the bonds between a mother and child. Comment on the difference between mother/son and mother/daughter relationships in Beloved.
3. Discuss the idea of “manhood,” and how it applies to all of the men of Sweet Home.
4. Why is Sethe apparently indifferent when Howard and Buglar run away?
5. Discuss the role of a mother; give your interpretation of Sethe’s performance as a mother.
6. Comment on the significance of Morrison’s dedication, to “sixty million and more,” in relation to the overall theme of Beloved and specifically to the chapter.
7. Discuss Morrison’s portrayal of schoolteacher in contrast with the traditional representation of a teacher (embodied by Lady Jones).
8. Compare indentured servitude and slavery, as represented in Beloved by Amy Denver and Sethe.
9. Explain why it is ironic that Mr. Garner took such pleasure in “calling his own niggers men.”
10. Explain Morrison’s idea of “rememory,” as she presents it.
11. List the evidence that Beloved is Sethe’s reincarnated daughter. What other possible explanations are there for Beloved’s identity?
12. Explain the progression of personification of the house at 124 Bluestone Road in the beginning of each of the three major sections of the book.
13. Why do the residents of Lorain, Ohio, accept the supernatural explanation of Beloved so readily? Explain your feelings about the supernatural.
