Pre-ReadingWhat Do You Know?*Objective: Developing a knowledge base prior to reading nonfictionActivity

An autobiography, as you probably know, is a person's life story, told by that person. Even though it is only the life story of the author, the book may also broaden your knowledge about a specific era in history. Complete the chart below with as much information as you can about the World War II internment camps and specifically about Manzanar.

Haiku Poetry

Objective: Writing haiku poetry

Activity

Haiku is a traditional Japanese form of poetry based on the number of syllables in the poem, not the number of words. Haiku poetry is most often written about elements of nature, such as weather, trees, plants, or animals. The most common form of haiku consists of three lines with five syllables in the first line, seven syllables in the second line, and five syllables in the third. One other unique feature of haiku is that the author usually avoids using metaphors or similes.

An example of a haiku poem:

Winter snow slides from
The eaves. Drops—plop—on my head.
As I walk under.

Complete the following chart with words that describe the weather or the natural environment of Manzanar. Once you have completed the chart, write a poem in the form of a haiku that describes some natural element of Manzanar. The first few are done for you.

Chapter 8Point of View*Objective: Inferring a character's perspectiveActivity

The authors describe Mama's submissive behavior and fear in this chapter. However, they do not explain why she acts as she does. Many people use a journal or diary to write about their feelings and reactions to events in their lives. Pretend that you are Mama, and write a journal or diary entry about your internment at Manzanar and your feelings about some of Papa's decisions.

Chapter 19Symbolism*Objective: Understanding the significance of symbols in lifeActivity

Before leaving Manzanar, Papa decides that he is going to buy a car even though the family does not have any money. This car symbolizes Papa's pride and his defiance of the treatment of his family while at Manzanar. Write a paragraph describing the importance of the car to Papa, why he bought it, why he refused to return to Los Angeles on the bus with the other internees, and what caused him to drive so crazily when he wanted to show the car to his family.
