Act 1

Advertisement

Objective: Learning to write an employment advertisement

Activity

After Helen dumps Mildred out of the cradle, Captain Keller finally agrees to try to hire someone to help teach and take care of Helen. Since he runs a newspaper, he is quite familiar with writing advertisements. Pretend that you are Captain Keller and need to write an advertisement for the governess position. Be sure to include all the requirements you expect of the person you will hire, both from an employment and personal standpoint, as well as the benefits you offer.

American Sign Language

Objective: Understanding the difficulties of not being able to hear

Activity

In your group, practice the manual hand language for the alphabet until you are familiar with each letter. Starting with the first words that Annie Sullivan signs in Helen's hand ("doll" and "cake"), prepare five sentences that you can present to the class in sign language. Practice the sentences as a group, with all of you signing each sentence, and see if your classmates can understand what you are saying.

Interviewing Skills

Objective: Interviewing main characters

Activity

Pretend that you are the host of a television talk show, and you are well-known for exploring unusual family events. You have heard about the Kellers' experiment with Helen and Annie living in the garden house for two weeks, and they have agreed to be interviewed.

Work with your group members to develop a list of questions that would interest your listeners. Remember that it's okay to ask questions that may make your guests uncomfortable; after all, your listeners are very outspoken, and they are divided on the issue of institutionalizing physically challenged people. The first question is done for you.

Relating Literature to Life

Objective: Relating the effect a person has on another person's life

Relating literature to life

Activity 1

Read the following statements Helen Keller made describing Annie Sullivan.

"We walked down the path to the well-house, attracted by the fragrance of the honey-suckle with which it was covered. Someone was drawing water and my teacher placed my hand under the spout. As the cool stream gushed over one hand she spelled into the other the word water, first slowly, then rapidly. I stood still, my whole attention fixed upon the motions of her fingers. Suddenly I felt a misty consciousness as of something forgotten, a thrill of returning thought, and somehow the mystery of language was revealed to me."—Helen Keller

"The most important day I remember in all my life is the one on which my teacher, Anne Mansfield Sullivan, came to me."—Helen Keller

"By nature she was a conceiver, a trail-blazer, a pilgrim of life's wholeness. So day by day, month after month, year in and year out, she labored to provide me with a diction and a voice sufficient for my service to the blind."—Helen Keller

Work with your partner to write a thank-you letter from Helen to Annie describing how much Annie has contributed to her life. If necessary, use the library or the Internet to research additional quotations from Helen Keller that support what you say in your letter.
